

Business Coaching, Consulting & Training

Sally is a single mother of two, Author, Speaker, entrepreneur, go getter, relentless seeker and learner of personal and business development at all levels.

She has a Masters in International Business, a BA in Business and is a bilingual and multicultural professional. She currently is pursuing a Masters degree in Holistic Psychology and she has several certifications from renowned international federations in Life and Business Coaching, Transformational Training as well as Quantum Healing Hypnosis. NLP and other holistic healing modalities.

Professionally, she has significant business experience and knowledge, including International Markets, working 15 years in Global companies overseas and 20 years successfully in commercial banking with Bank of America & SunTrust Bank. She has a proven track record of helping her clients to capitalize profitable business opportunities in both domestic & international markets. Sally's management background and skill sets have been instrumental in inspiring numerous professionals to reach their full potential, leading them to achieve their goals and successful business growth

She successfully progressed through positions within business development, foreign trade, portfolio management, risk management, customer service management and diversification in financial services. SBA certified trainer for Small Business Lending; Credit analyst certified for Financial Analysis; Commercial lender; graduate of the "Certified Coaches Federation" (CCF) as a Business Coach and "International Coaching Federation" (ICF) earning several additional certifications among other achievements.

Sally currently serves as the President/ CEO of Sally V Enterprises, LLC. Company that facilitates Business Development & Leadership transformational trainings. As such, she has broadened her expertise and is inspiring entrepreneurs and business executives.

Sally is also incurred in media & worked on business radio with weekly segments: "Sally's Biz Tips", "Let's Talk SBA" & "Women in Business" on WZAB 880AM The Biz and later on WBRNMiami.com.